How I Design Clarity in Complex Environments

telehealth — erp system — public transportation

TELEHEALTH PLATFORM. CONTEXT

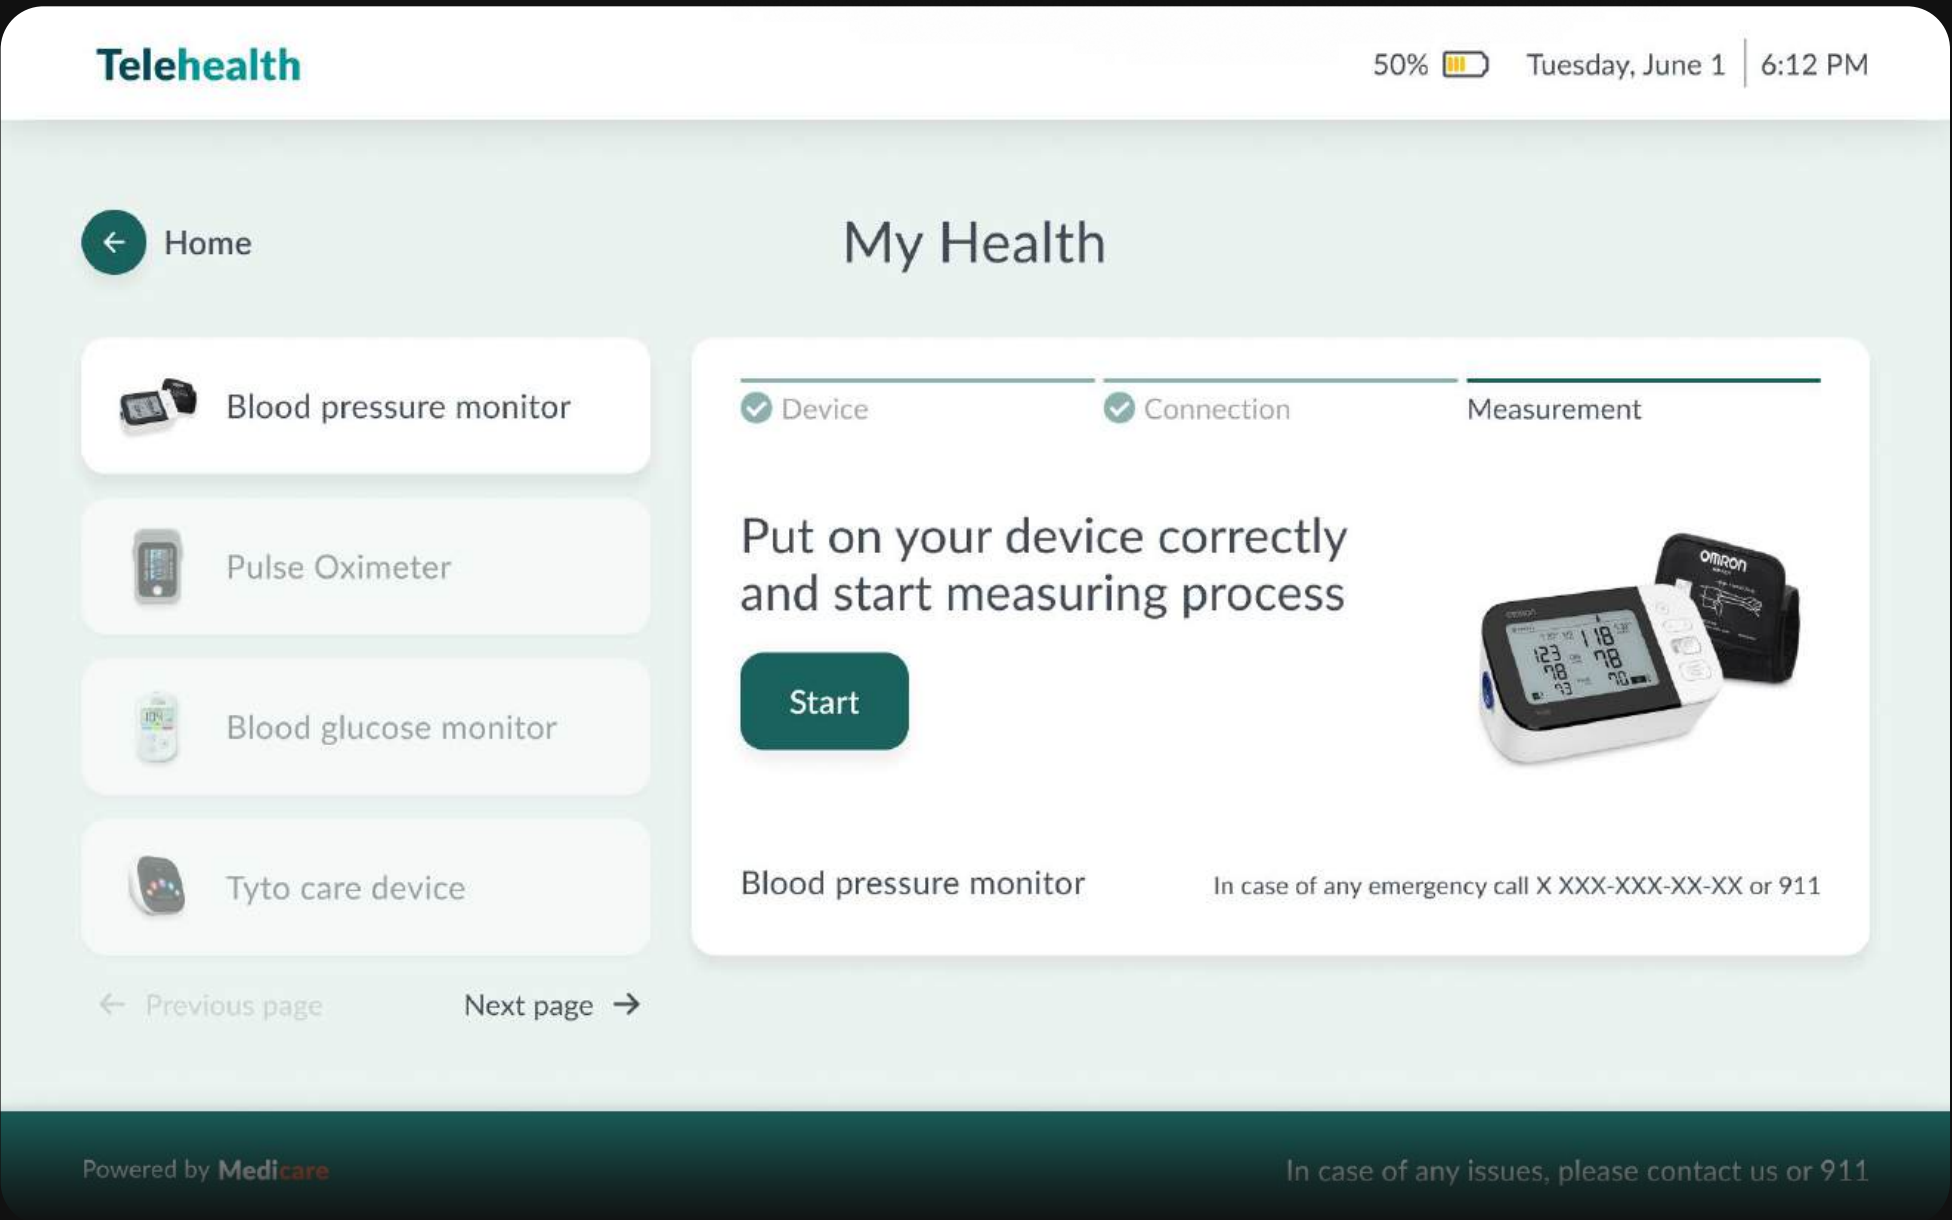

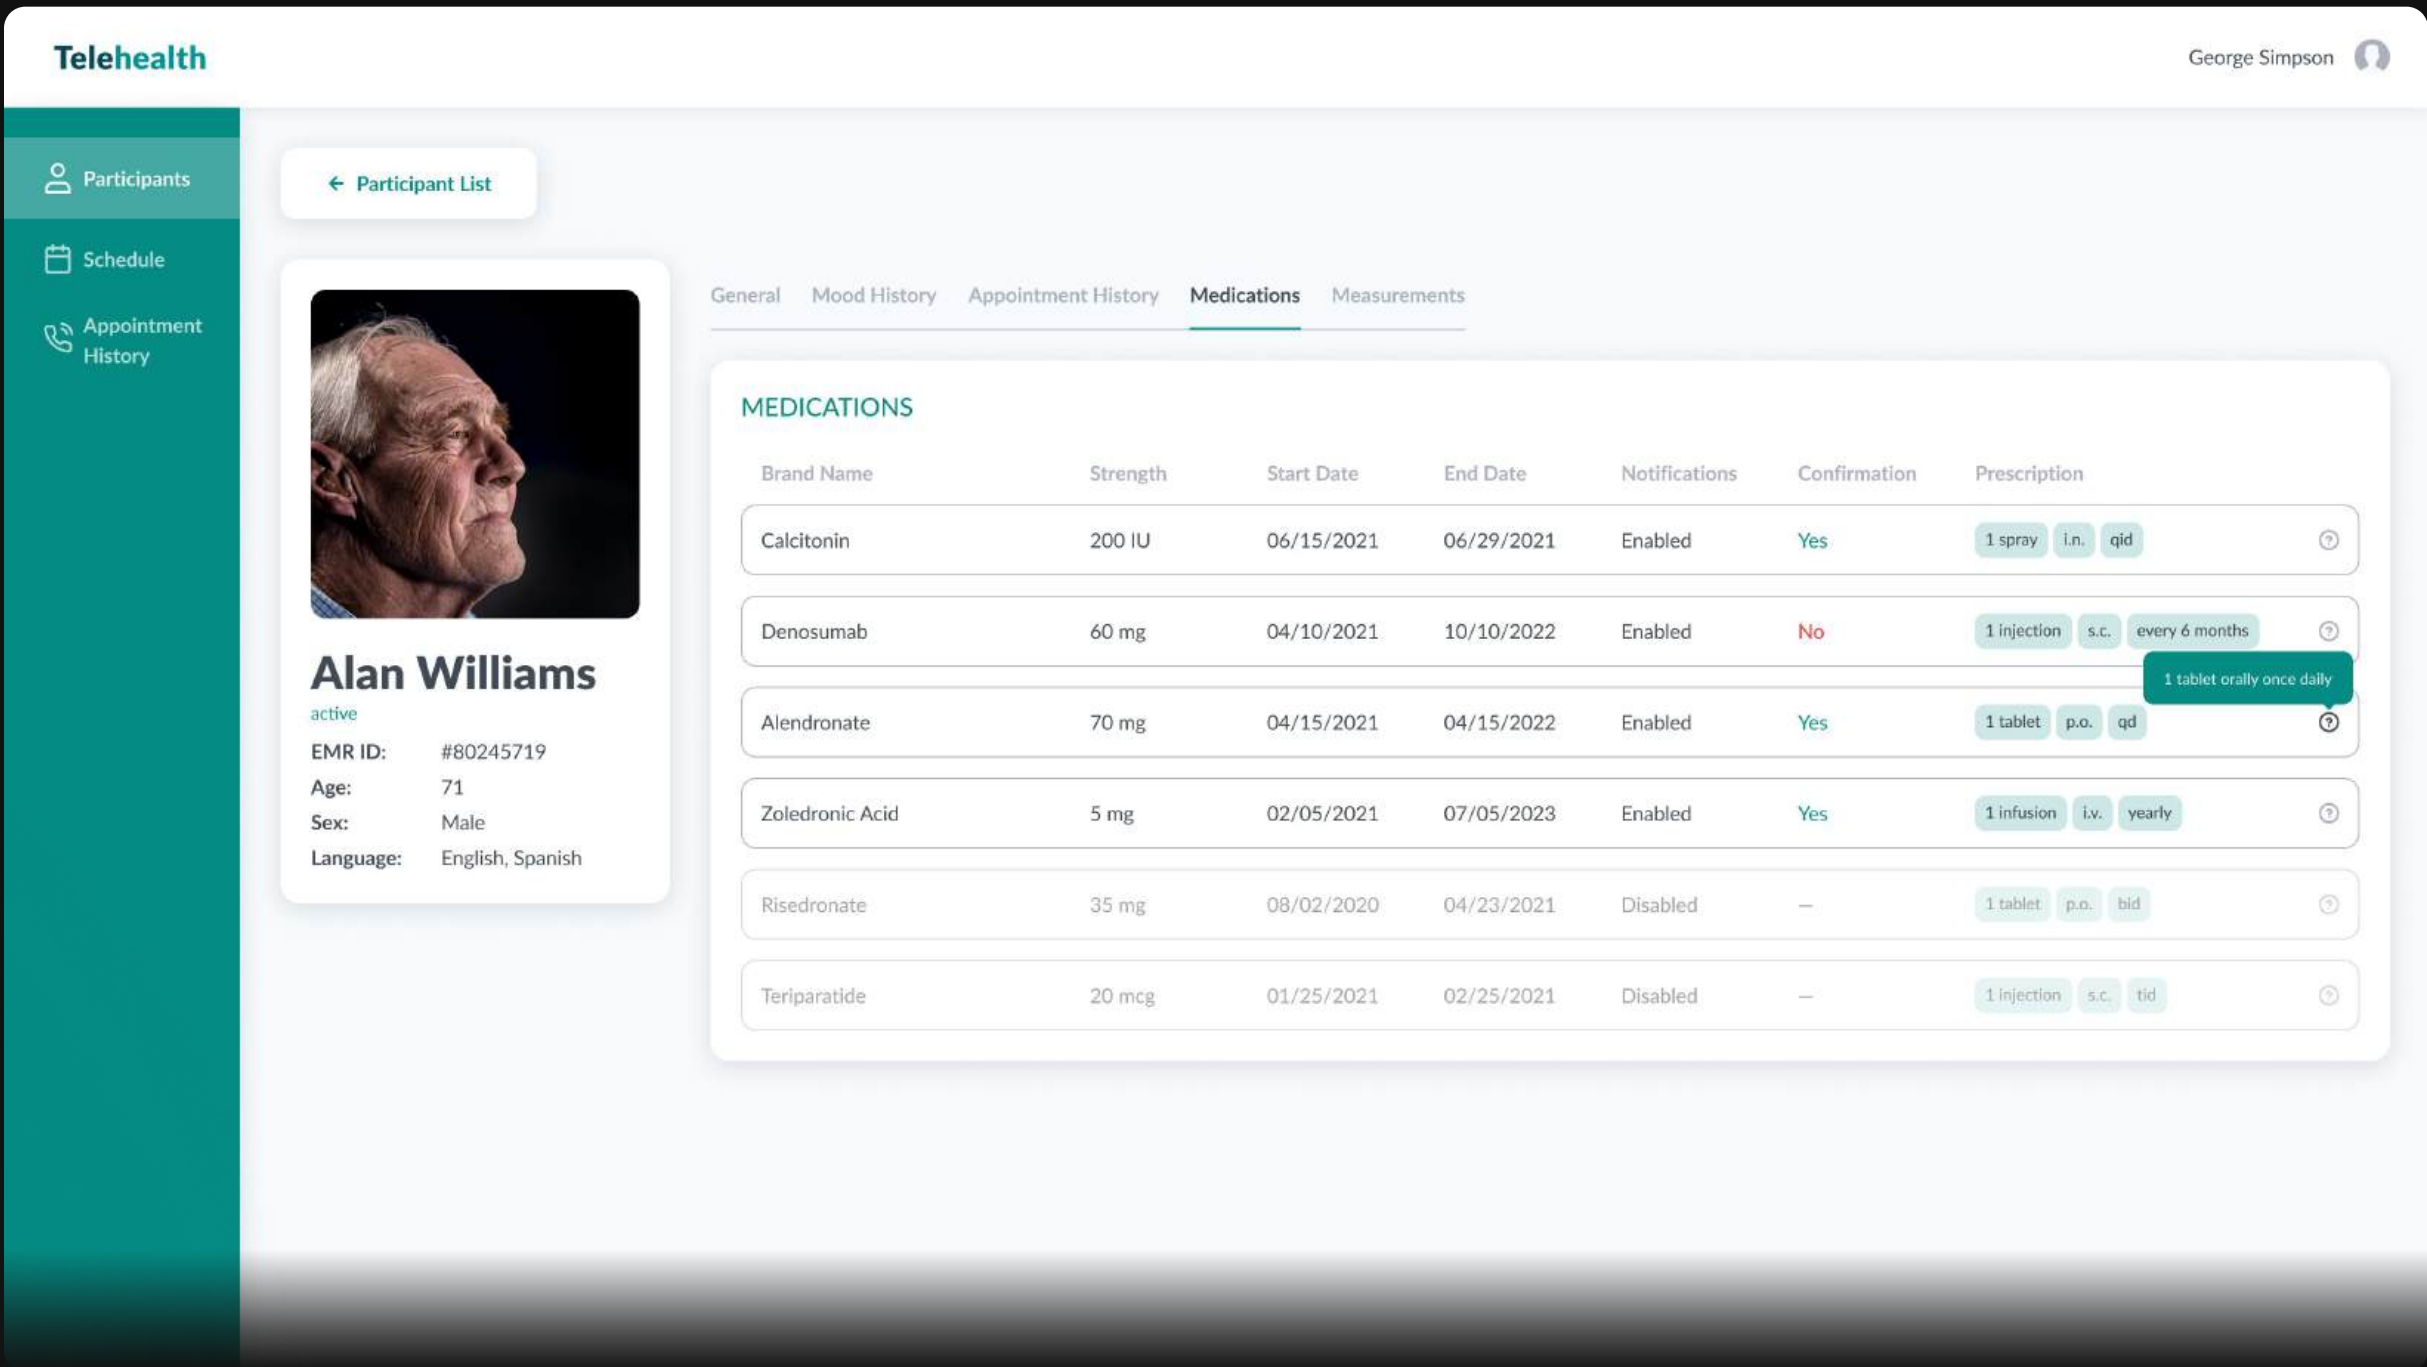

Task: Create an MVP of an accessible telehealth platform connecting doctors and patients.

Team	• Project Manager • Scrum Master • 2 Designers • 5 Developers & 2 QAs	Project stack	• Taiga UI for Web • Material Design for Tablet • WCAG 2.1 AA compliance • Figma components and styles	Stakeholders	• Medical directors of investor company • Client's company management
-------------	---	----------------------	--	---------------------	---

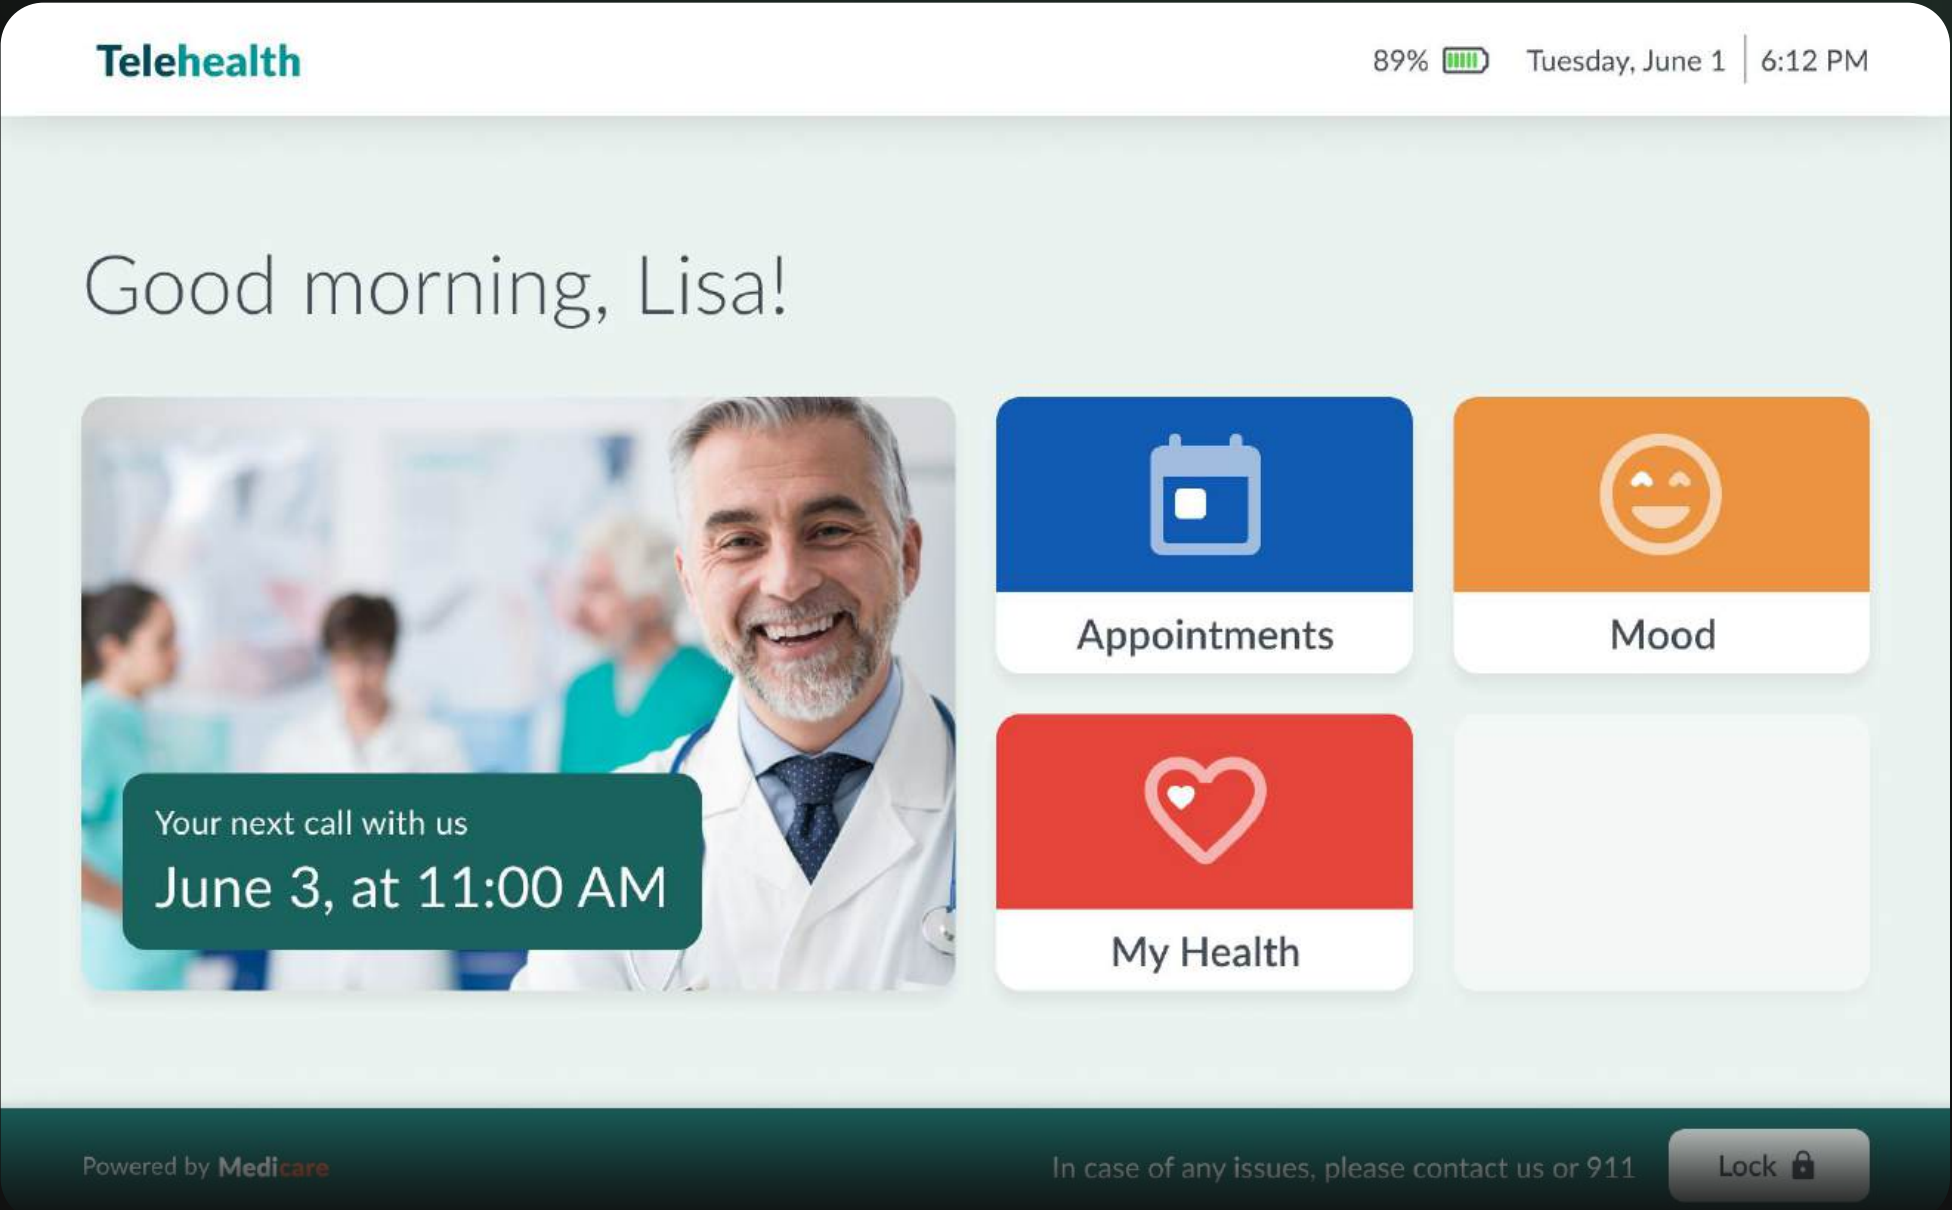

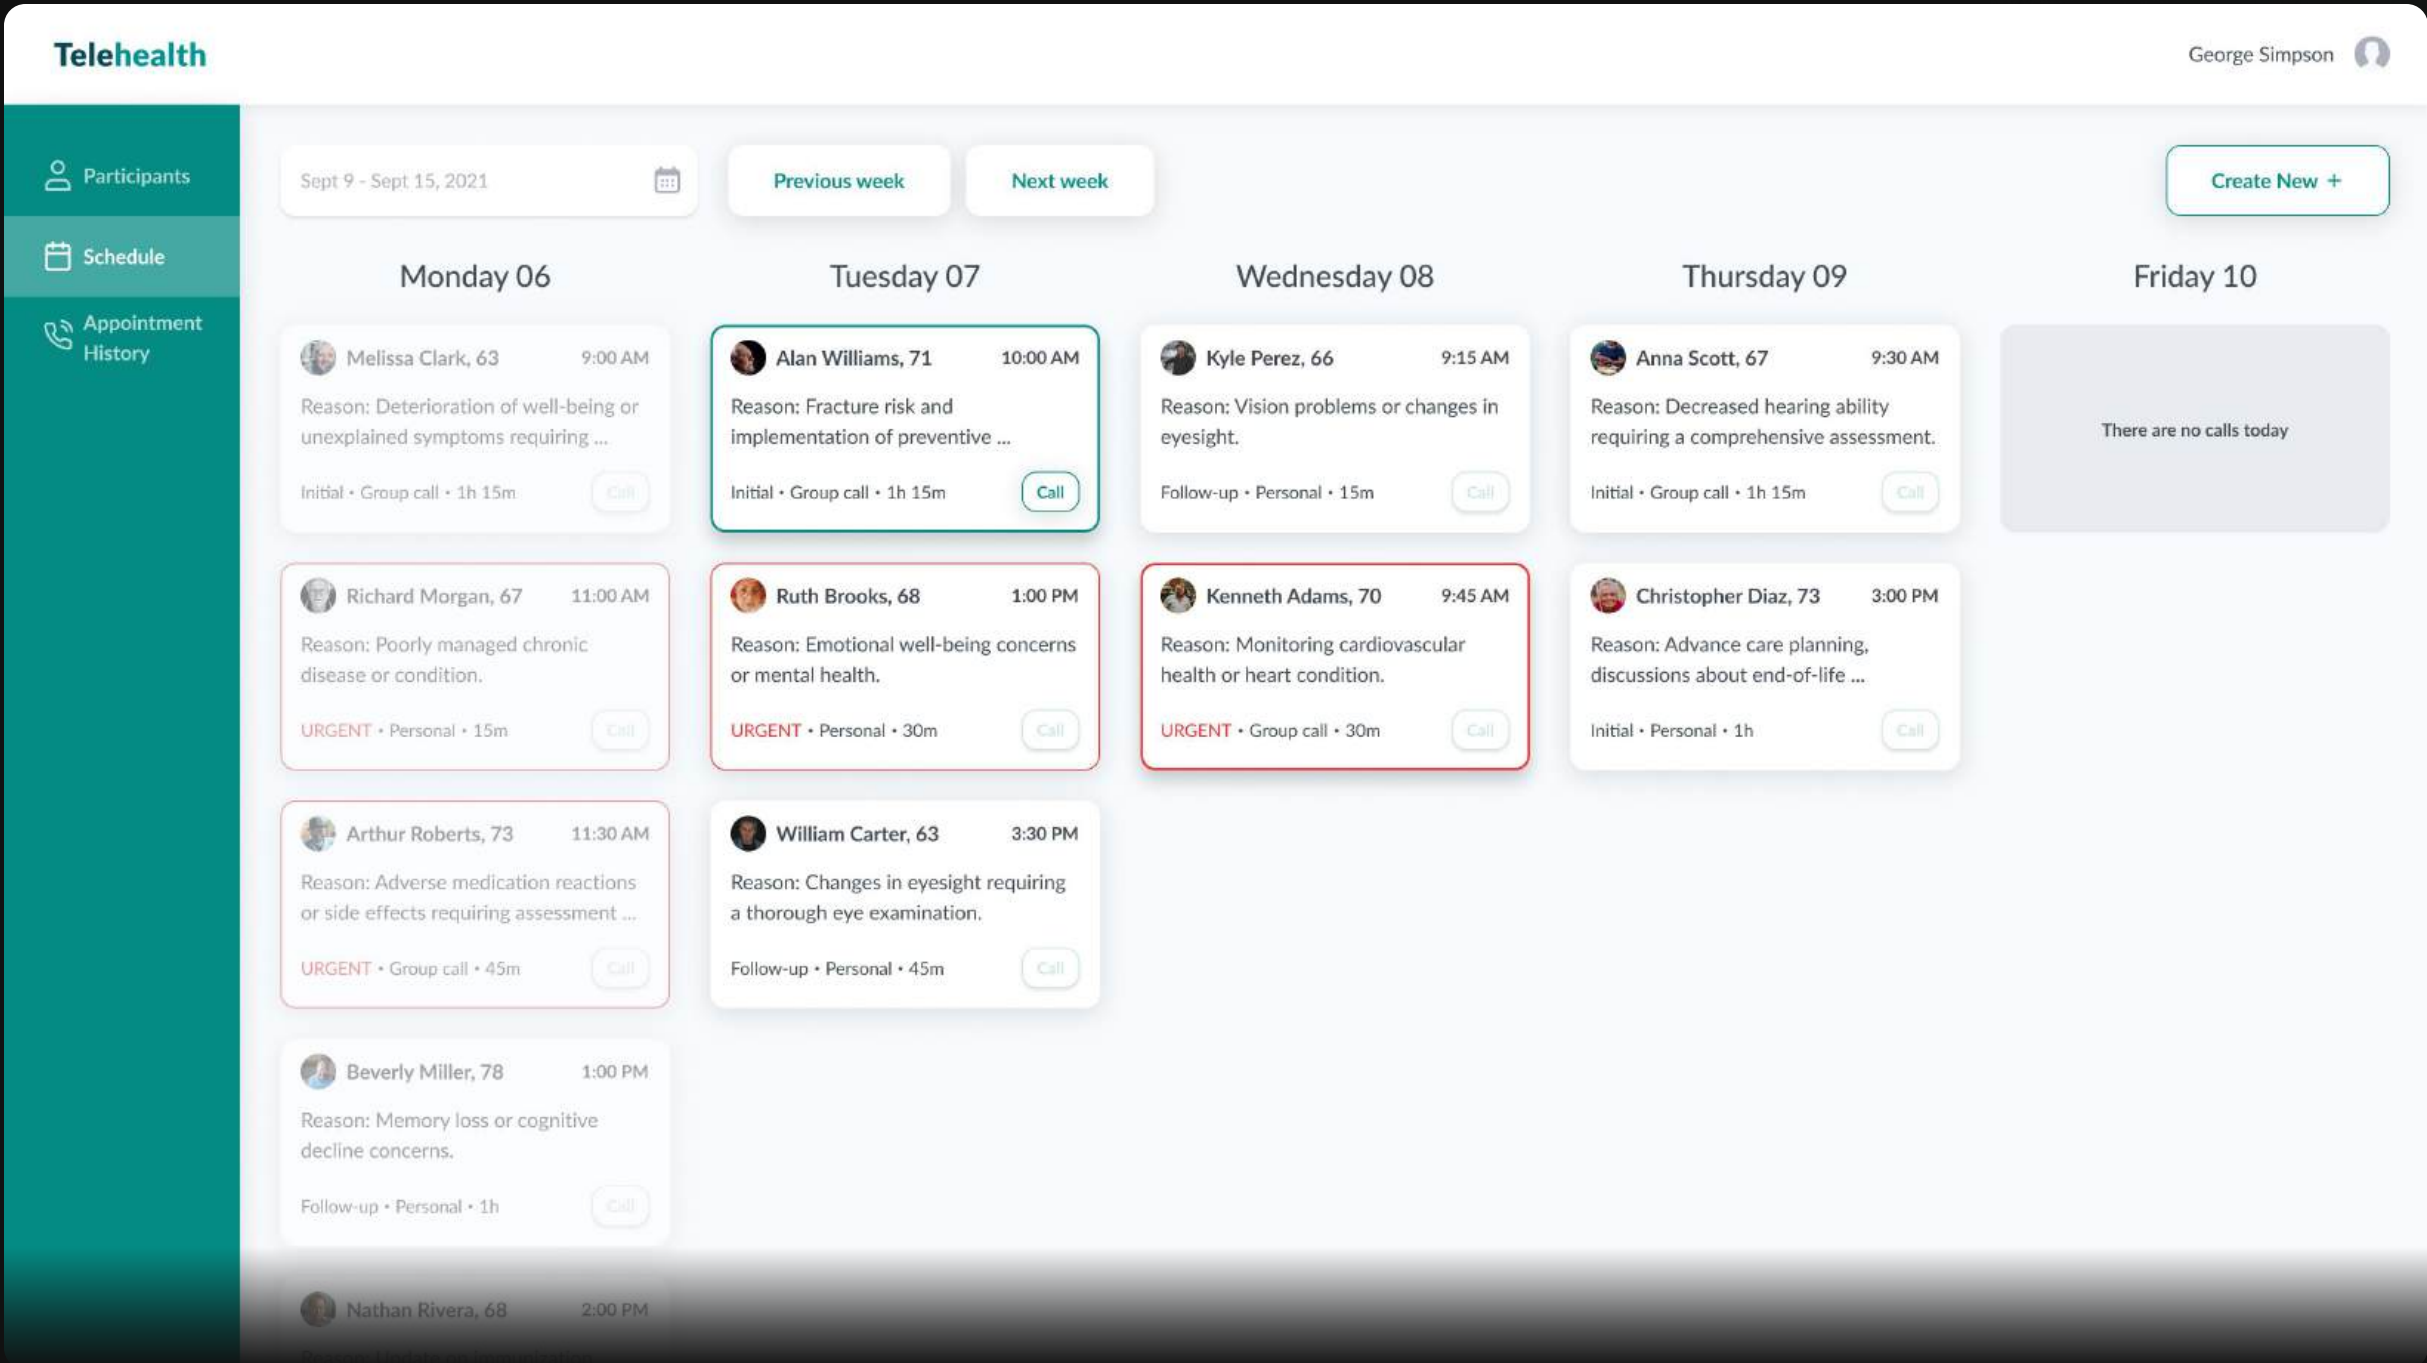

* Was the Lead designer responsible for the patient-facing experience, from interviews and flows to final UI and design handover.

TELEHEALTH PLATFORM. CHALLENGES

- Highly regulated healthcare environment (HIPAA, WCAG, etc.)
- White-label requirement (balancing aesthetics and accessibility standards)
- Digitalisation of medical workflows

TELEHEALTH PLATFORM

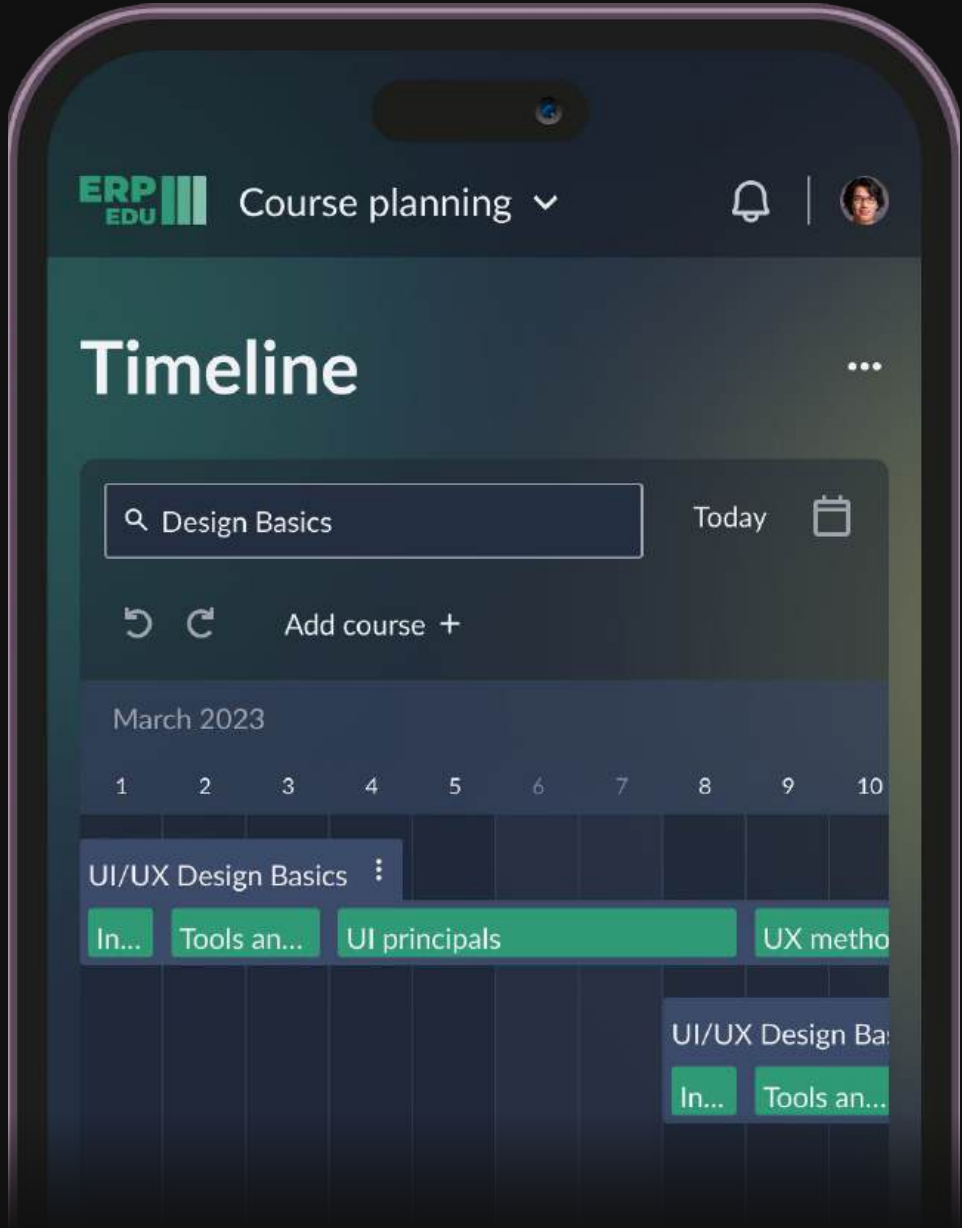

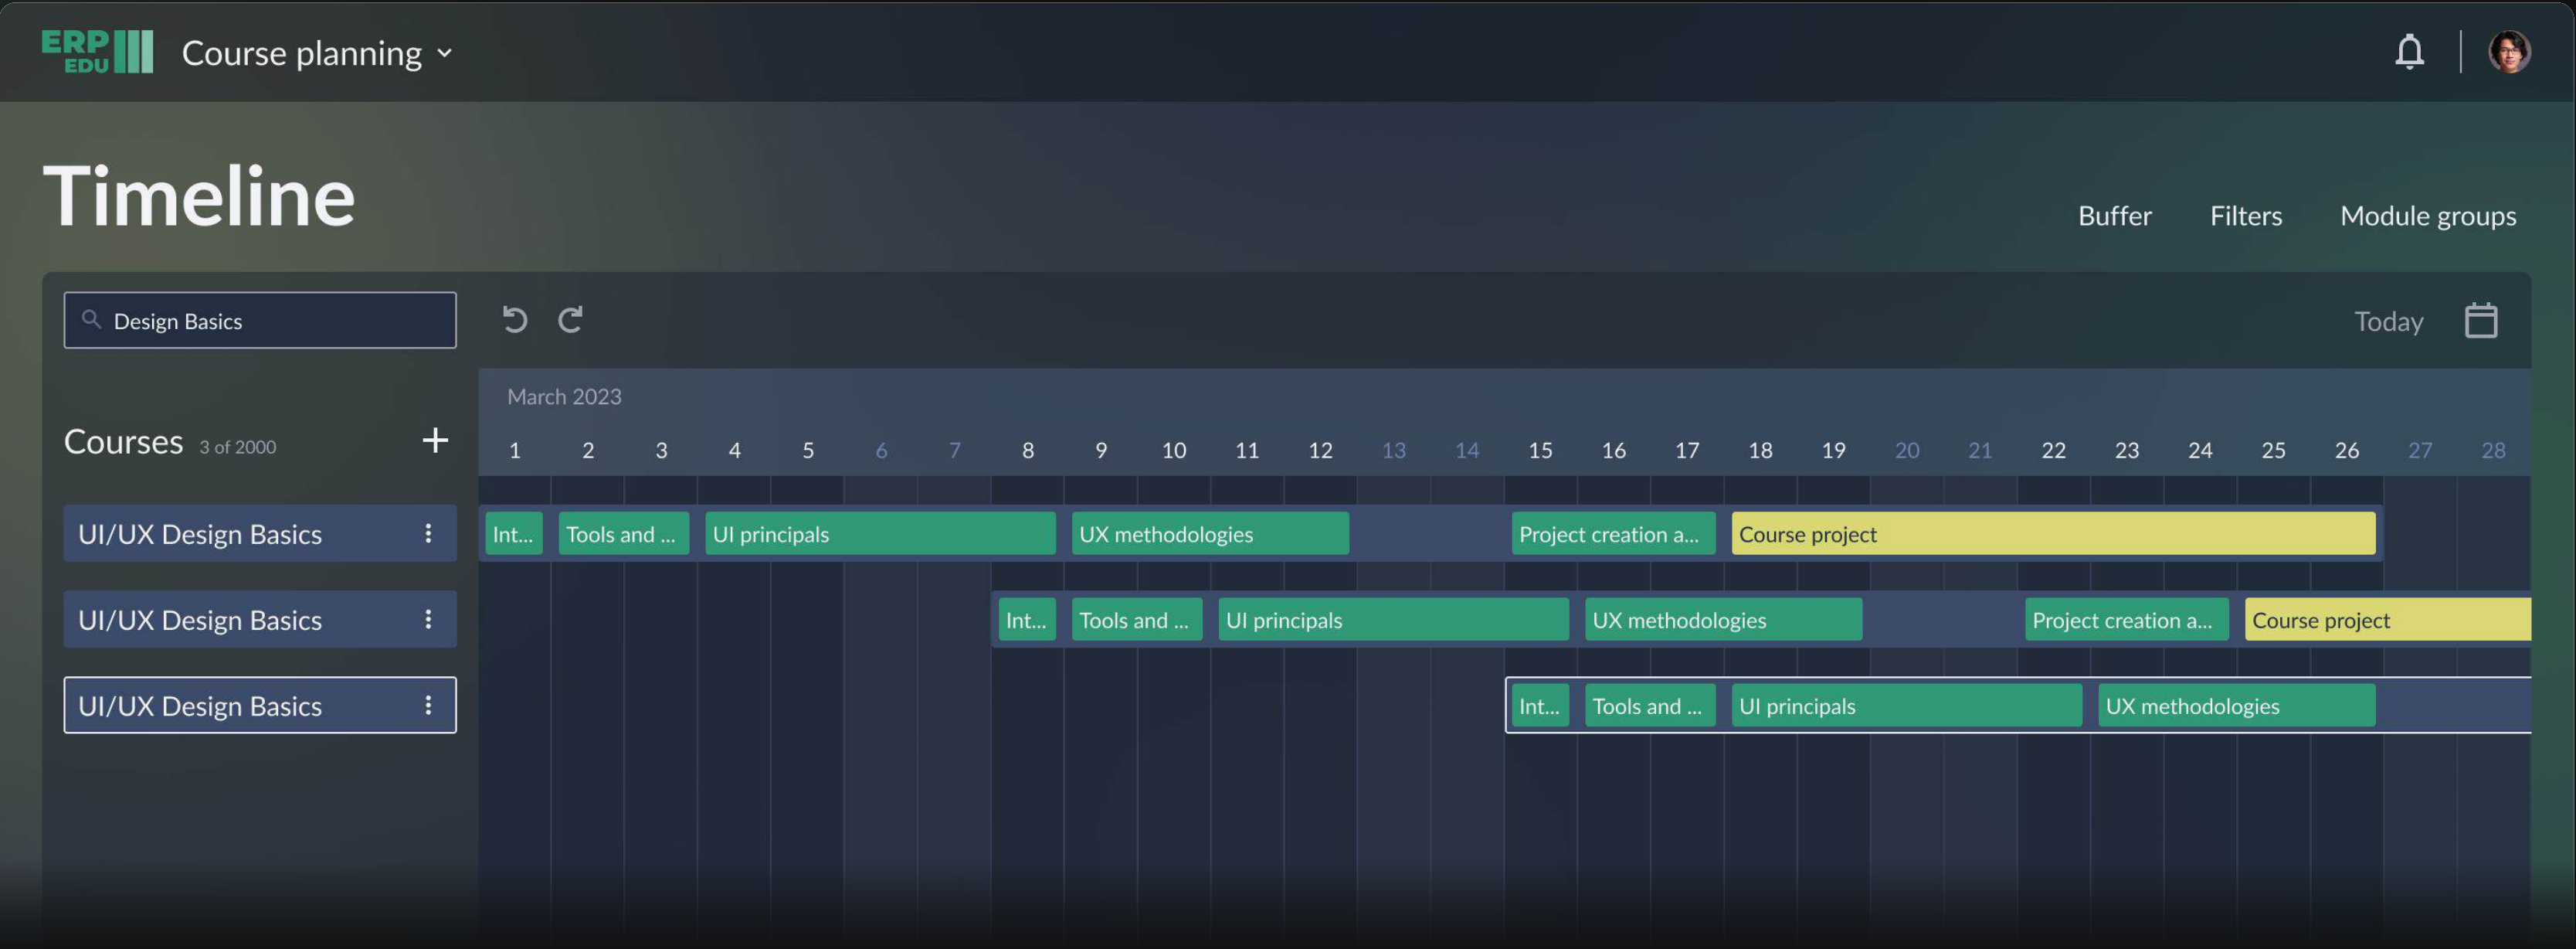

APPROACH

- Conducted 20+ interviews with doctors and patients
- Defined an accessibility framework / design principles
- Built interactive prototypes and tested them remotely

RESULTS

- Passed accessibility (A11Y) audit on the first run
- Launched the MVP in 3 months with a reusable foundation
- Fewer “cannot use app” complaints

ERP SYSTEM. CONTEXT

Task: Design an ERP tool to digitalise processes for managing educational resources.

Team	• Product Owner • Scrum Master • Designer • 4 Developers & 2 QAs	Project stack	• Material UI • WCAG 2.1 AA • Figma components, styles and variables • Storybook + Confluence for documentation	Stakeholders	• Chief Operations Officer • Head of Sales Department • Planning Managers • Officials from BAMF
-------------	--	----------------------	---	---------------------	---

* Co-led product discovery and UX decisions together with the Product Owner, while owning all design execution (research, flows, UI).

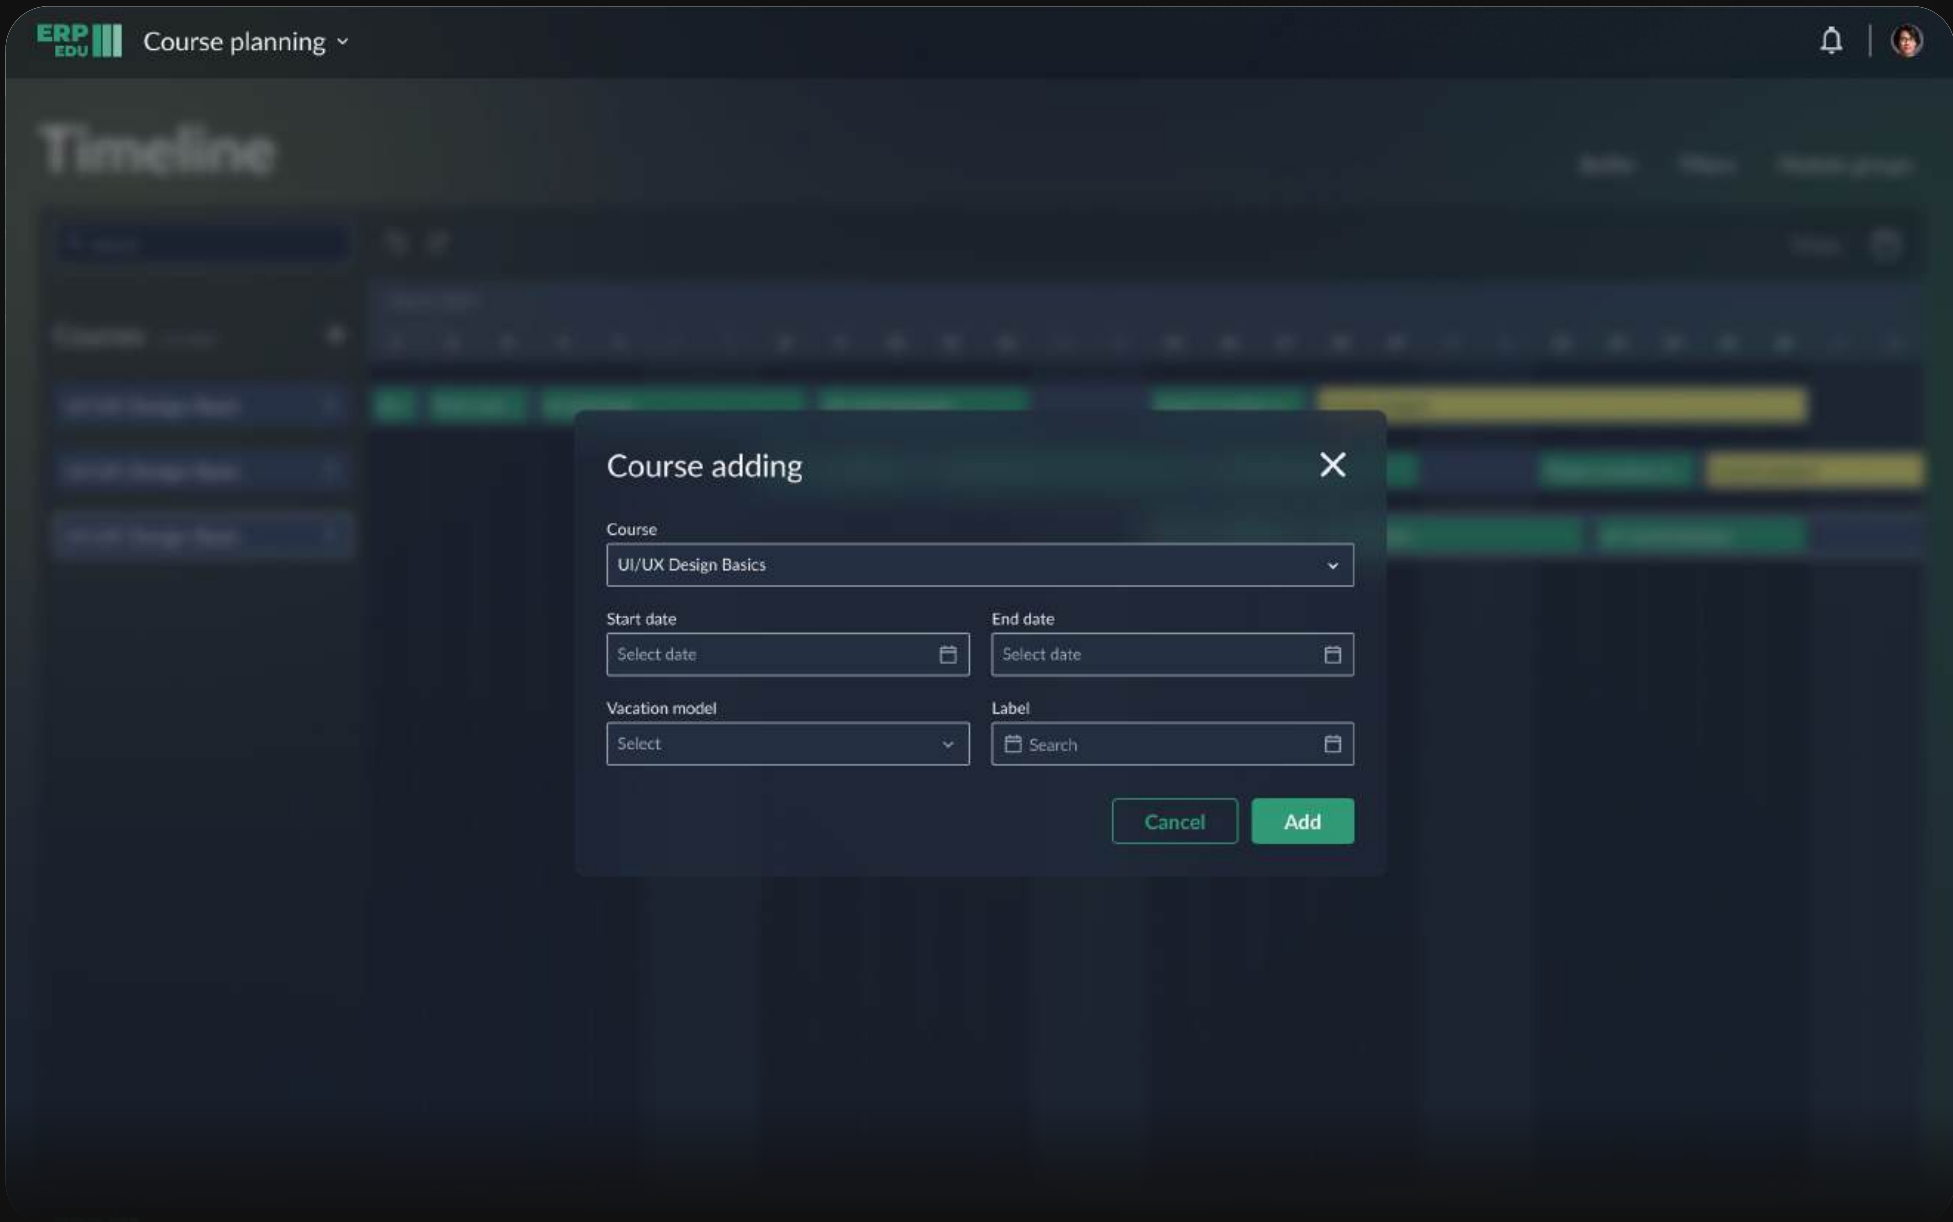

ERP SYSTEM. CHALLENGES

- Bureaucratic decision-making chain
- Massive datasets and complicated processes in Excel
- Need to unify 5 separate tools into one modular interface

The screenshot shows an Excel spreadsheet titled 'ANTH 147'. It contains a table with columns for Course Code, Course Name, Credits, and For? (For?). The data is organized by semester, with sections for Fall 2017, Spring 2018, Fall 2018, Spring 2019, Fall 2019, Spring 2020, Fall 2020, and Spring 2021. Each section lists courses and their credits, with a 'Total' row at the end of each semester's data.

The screenshot shows an ERP system interface with a 'Course planning' header. A 'Timeline' view is visible in the background. A 'Course adding' modal is open in the foreground, allowing users to add new courses. The modal includes fields for Course, Start date, End date, Vacation model, and Label, along with 'Cancel' and 'Add' buttons.

ERP SYSTEM FOR WBS TRAINING AG

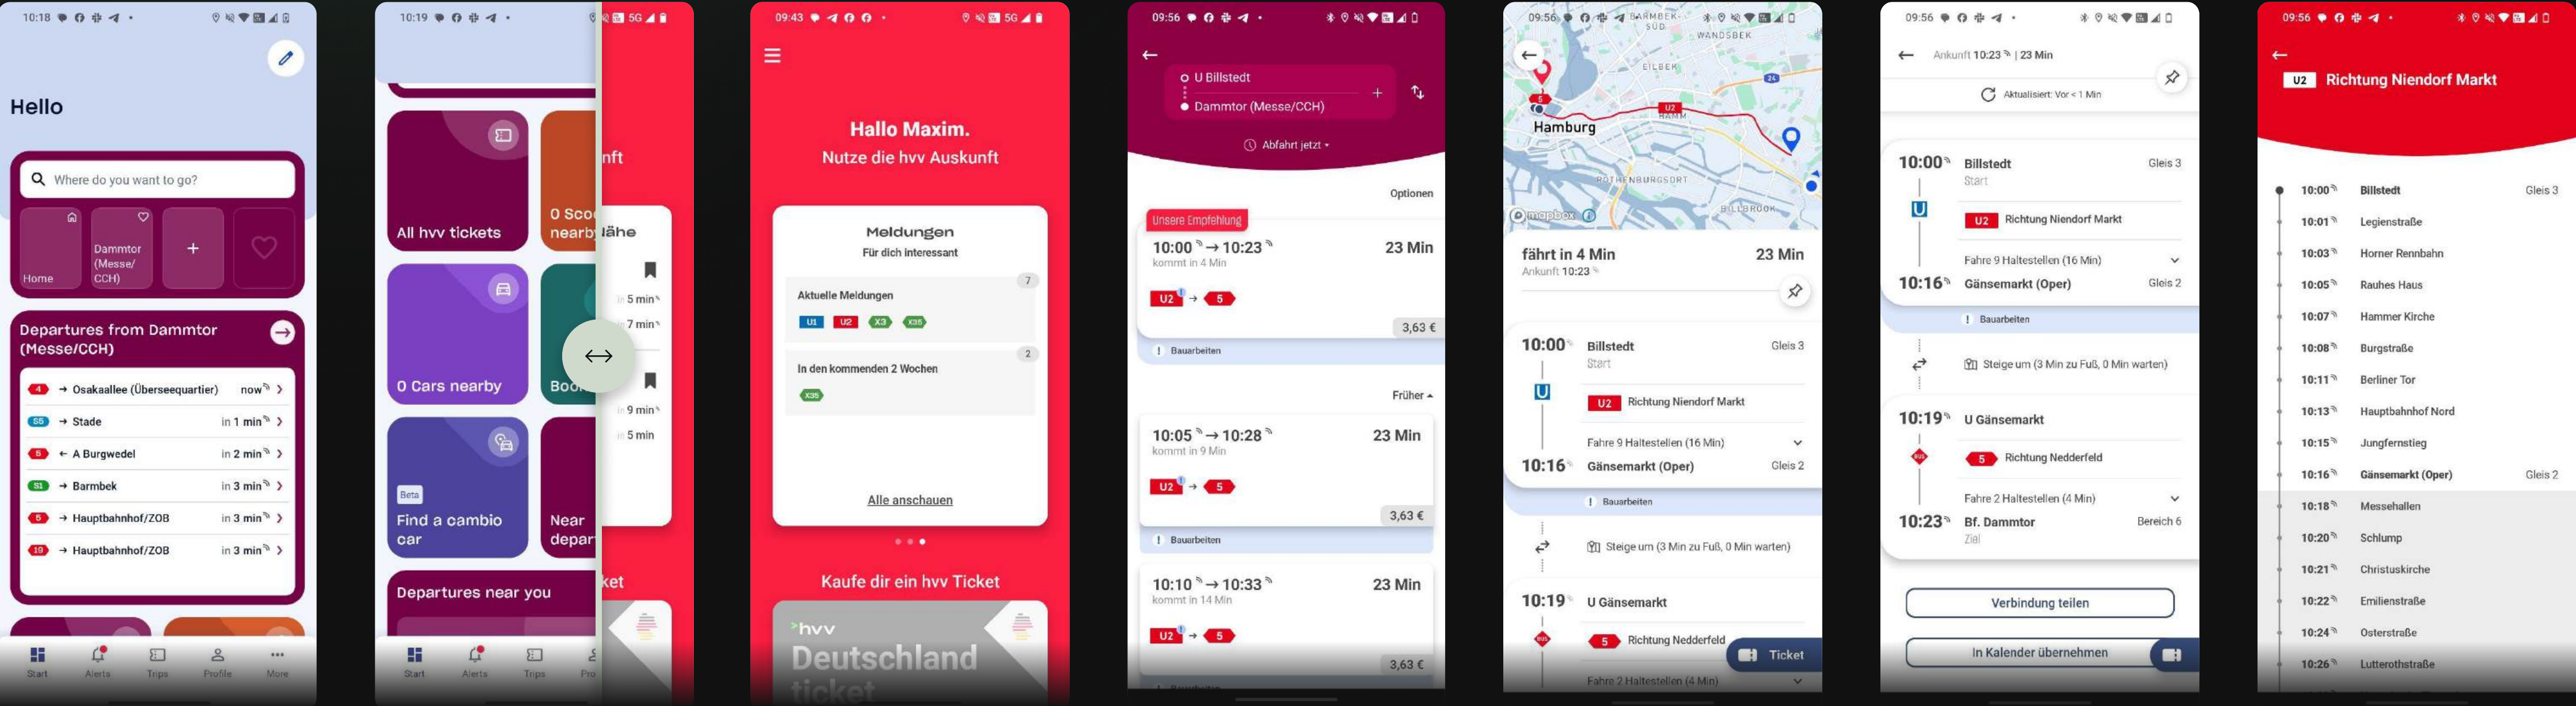

APPROACH

- Conducted UX research with 30+ user interviews
- Tested key flows and concepts using Maze
- Created a roadmap with milestones and prioritisation

RESULTS

- Reduction in planning time
- Step by step reduced use of Excel almost to zero within 1 year
- Initiated a project to integrate ML-based planning support

HVV SWITCH. CONTEXT

Task: Contribute to the redesign of Hamburg’s multimodal mobility app (ÖPNV part)

Team	• Product Owner • Scrum Master • 2 Designers • 6 Developers & 3 QAs	Project stack	• Native app guidelines • WCAG 2.1 AA • Multi-layer design system • ZeroHeight	Stakeholders	• Top Management - HOCHBAHN AG • HVV marketing department • Marketing Agency • Accessibility agency
-------------	---	----------------------	--	---------------------	---

* Co-led design with another product designer, specifically owning public transport flows and their integration into the multimodal experience.

HVV SWITCH. CHALLENGES

- Public-sector environment with political and institutional dependencies
- Large, active user base with diverse needs
- Maintaining consistency across teams and apps (3 different CIs)

The collage features several news snippets and app store cards. News articles include: 'hvv switch-App wird ausgebaut' from Zughalt.de; 'Neuer Look, neuer Name: Verschwinden jetzt die beliebten HVV-Apps? (M+)' from MOPO; 'Verkehr: Nutzer sollen Nahverkehrsapp Max selbst gestalten können' from DIE ZEIT; 'New Max transport app to be launched in second half of 2026' from Berlin.de; 'HVV: Diese App wird zum „Herzstück der Mobilität“ in Hamburg' from Hamburger Abendblatt; and 'HVV stellt am Donnerstag die App "Any" ein' from Radio Hamburg. App store cards include: 'hvv switch: Tickets & Sharing' (4+ rating, 4.3 stars, 27,832 reviews); 'hvv - ÖPNV Tickets & Fahrinfo' (4.2 stars, 49,900 reviews, 1M+ downloads); 'hvv - Hamburg Bus & Bahn' (4+ rating, 4.4 stars, 4,506 reviews); and 'hvv switch: ÖPNV & Sharing' (4.2 stars, 6,048 reviews, 1M+ downloads, USK ab 0 Jahren).

HVV SWITCH FOR HOCHBAHN AG

APPROACH

- Established a structured design flow
- Ran multiple user tests and beta tests
- Maximised client involvement in the process

RESULTS

- Launched a beta version in 6 months after R&D
- Fewer contradictions between systems
- Designed, tested and launched 5+ new key features

THE COMMON THREAD

Each project started in uncertainty. I did not enter as an expert, but as a learner obsessed with mastering the unknown and designing the best possible solution.

My superpowers are curiosity and collaboration. I stay close to developers and users, building bridges between order and creativity, innovation and usability, product and people.

THANK YOU!
